ETHEL TERRELL THE MOST EXPERIENCED CANDIDATE FOR STATE REPRESENTATIVE

ETHEL TERRELL Highland Park Council President

9th District Needs Terrell's Leadership and Experience

NO OTHER CANDIDATE for STATE REPRESENTATIVE in our district has the experience in government and in the Democratic Party that ETHEL TERRELL has. Ethel Terrell not only knows the needs of all the people in our district, she also knows that State Government can and must be made more responsive to our needs.

ETHEL TERRELL was the first Black Woman Council President in Michigan. In her term of office she has always stood up to be counted when the best interest of our people required it. While she has been Council President, unfairness and discrimination in City employ no longer exists in her city. We need this type of leadership in Lansing to bring about the same results. We know Ethel will keep forth with us as she has in the past. Be sure to vote and hav your friends vote for ETHEL TERRELL, August 8, 1978.

YOUR VOTE FOR ETHEL TERRELL will insure that the interests of our district will be considered when the legislature looks at major tax revision; Laws to improve employment; and all of the govermental programs that effect our daily lives.

MRS. TERRELL has served the Democratic party of our district continuously as a precinct delegate for the past thirty-five (35) years. Her devotion to the people of this district will continue in Lansing as our State Representative. She will move for funds to improve the homes of people in our district.
